This was agreed upon today and prices were fixed for fir logs and lumber. THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS TO BE RAISED IN STATE.

By a special order of the Boosters, their regular meeting was addressed last night by Mrs. F. S. Hunt, chairman of the Morgan county illiteracy campaign. Mrs. Hunt explained that Alabama was to raise $3,500 and that Morgan county's quota was $250; that the money when raised was to go toward defraying the traveling expenses only of the army of teachers who have volunteered to instruct those of the draft army who cannot read, make out or understand their draft papers. The whole campaign of teaching is to be confined to draft soldiers only. Mrs. Hunt also announced that today a large number of women and young girls would sell tags, and the Boosters were requested to get behind the movement and stay behind it until complete success is achieved.

Regular Order of Business.
D. D. McGee made the first report, which was to the effect that full arrangements had been made for the big celebration for July 4th.
A finance committee was named with T. M. Dix as chairman, to work out a completed system by which the finances of the club might be handled in a more systematic manner. W. W. Fussell was named chairman of the committee whose duty it was "to put every member in good standing by next Friday night." Outside of a few delinquent membership fees the finances of the club were shown to be in excellent condition, according to the written report of Treasurer Roper, which was accepted and ordered filed.
President Morrill, presided and as it was his first appearance before the club since he secured the new train to Sheffield, he was asked to explain his work for the train. It was shown that only two hours' actual work was required by Mr. Morrill to secure the consent of the Cincinnati railroad authorities to the new project and only about a day was required for the Cincinnati people to get the consent of Washington authorities to put the train on.

Adjourned for Home Church Services.
According to agreement the Boosters adjourned early last night in order to attend the home service meeting at the First Methodist church. In speaking of the value of attending any church service, President Morrill said: "No one should be ashamed to make a sincere effort to become a clean Christian gentleman; if one is so ashamed there is something dangerously the matter with him."

900,000 U. S. TROOPS HAVE SAILED FOR FRANCE, SAYS MARCH

(International News Service.)
Washington, June 22.—Nine hundred thousand soldiers have been shipped from embarkation ports to the front, General March, chief of staff, revealed this afternoon in his weekly reception to the newspaper correspondents.
This places the work of sending our man-power to the battle line five months ahead of the program originally laid out and confirms the statement made by the International News Service two months ago that the United States would have 1,000,000 soldiers in France by July 1.

The chief of staff also revealed that the total number of marines now at the front is 12,000. He revealed for the first time that the Cantigny battle was won by the First Division, which was the first to arrive in France. The commander of the division is Major General Robert L. Bullard of Alabama.

GANG OF SHOPLIFTERS AT WORK; THREE ARRESTS FOR VAGRANCY

A gang of shoplifters, overflows from the Tri-Cities, has been at work in the Twin Cities during the past week. As a result many articles of value have been removed from stores. The light-handed group appeared to favor dainty articles of lingerie, and were so persistent in their efforts that they haunted one or two Second avenue stores almost daily, their actions arousing suspicion at each call.

In an effort to rid the city of the shoplifters, Albany police arrested R. B. Dixon, Mary Wilkes and Lindsey, a man and two women, all of whom were strangers. They were arraigned before Judge Hamilton of the inferior court on the charge of vagrancy. The man was given 90 days on the road and the women each 30 days in jail.

Governor Henderson designated "tag day" by official proclamation.

War Aftermath Is German Worry

(International News Service.)
London, June 22.—Germany is playing for a victory on land, hoping to get indemnity and raw materials, it was learned today from an unquestionable source. It is declared that Germany is willing to surrender Belgium, back out of Russia, and let her colonies go if she could get peace which would assure her of such a deal. Germany is thinking of nothing but her economic condition after the war.

WEBSTER'S MILL BURNS TO GROUND

Webster's mill, at the foot of Bank street, was destroyed by fire early this morning. The alarm was turned in about 3 o'clock, and when the firemen arrived the blaze had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the structure, which was a total loss.
The building was two stories in height of galvanized iron construction. The plant was equipped for grinding both meal and crushed feeds, and during the season had a large daily output.

Mr. Johnson served his apprenticeship in the local railroad shops and is credited with being well up in his business. He was reared in Albany and has many friends here who wish him the largest measure of success. Young Johnson is a brother of Charles Johnson, the popular barber.

COMMERCE BOARD URGED TO FOSTER ALL WAR ACTIVITIES

SPEAKERS POINT OUT THAT THIS IS PRESENT MISSION OF ORGANIZATION.

Routine business was disposed of at the regular monthly membership meeting of the Albany Board of Commerce, held last night at the headquarters of the board in the Colonial building. President Moebes was in the chair, with Secretary Henley at the desk. About fifty members were present.

The importance of keeping the organization together, in order that city building may begin on an enlarged scale immediately at the conclusion of the war, was stressed by several speakers, including Dr. M. W. Murray and Major Chas. Bassett, who pointed out that it was hardly to be expected that many industries would be located until after the world conflict ends.

Tidwell Makes "Threats."
Col. Tennis Tidwell and J. W. Cunningham addressed the board in regard to the Thrift Stamp drive the week of June 28, which is "Thrift Day." Colonel Tidwell stated that next week he would, for the first time in his life, launch out on a canvassing trip, and he threatened dire things to those who refused to be won by W. S. S. when he comes calling. Mr. Cunningham also stressed the importance of Albany coming up with its quota.

Colonel Tidwell, in his address, urged that the farmers be encouraged to take a more active part in organization work. During the war, he stated, the prime purpose of the board should be to aid war activities and the building up of the country and the encouragement of the farmer to improve his farm, grow additional food products and to work in accord with the purposes of the government. He spoke of results that had been accomplished along this line by commercial organizations at points that he had recently visited.

Mrs. W. E. Todd explained "Tag Day," which is today, and that the proceeds are to be used in the campaign to eradicate illiteracy among the drafted men of the state who have not yet been called to the colors. She asked for the support of the board. She also explained the auction sale tonight of a brace of fine chickens presented by Mrs. Florence Forbes. The auction will be held on the Ory-Cohen corner early this evening.

July Fourth Celebration.
Mayor E. C. Payne explained the July Fourth celebration which is to be held in the Twin Cities, the Board of Commerce and the Decatur Boosters club co-operating.

Charles Rountree, in a spirited address in which he pleaded for the development of the "get-together" spirit, inquired what action has been taken in regard to the building of a macadam highway from the Twin Cities to the Tri-Cities.

A number of other speakers were heard, including Henry Spielberger, I. J. Kuhn and A. A. Hardage. They brought up matters of interest to the membership.

Action Is Ratified.
President Moebes reported that the Board of Commerce had affiliated with the North Alabama of Commerce, and asked that this action be ratified, which was done.

During the evening cigars were passed, adding to the joys of the occasion.

Ireland is Red; America Cursed

REVOLUTION CONTINUES TO SPREAD IN DUAL MONARCHY; CHARLES REPORTED TO BE IN FEAR OF LIFE

Socialist Delegates Said to Have Declared the Empire on Its "Last Legs."

AMERICANS HAVE EXTENDED LINES Italian Armies Continue to Prove More Than a Match for the Foe. Outlook Bright

Despite reports that Austria and possibly German troops are being massed for fresh assaults, the great battle which sprang up with the Austrian offensive on the Italian front one week ago today, appears to be nearing its final phase.

This is the interpretation to be gathered from the declaration of Premier Orlando of Italy that the gallant Italians and their allies have gained the mastery of their foes. However, strong Austrian pressure continues along the front, especially on the Piave river. The Austrians have been unable to make any headway. On the contrary they have lost further ground in the vital sector of Nervesa. The gains of the Italians at Nervesa is a serious menace to the Austrian force that crossed the Piave at Montello and gained a foothold on the slopes. New food riots are reported in Vienna, accompanied by attacks against munitions plants and these are expected to have a certain effect on the military positions of the Dual Monarchy. The Germans are evidently planning for another blow in the west.

(International News Service.)
London, June 22.—An attempt has been made to assassinate Emperor Charles of Austria, according to reports circulated on the Amsterdam Bourse, said a Central News dispatch from that city today.

There is no confirmation of these reports. The last publicly heard of, Charles was on the Italian front. Earlier advices had hinted that the emperor's life was in danger and that Austrian newspapers had ceased to publish reports of his movements. Nothing has been heard of the emperor since the bread ration was reduced.

ITALIANS SHOUT "THEY SHALL NOT PASS"

(International News Service.)
Rome, June 22.—The Austrians are in a critical condition on the Piave river at San di Piave, lower Piave, as a result of the flood condition of the stream and the activity of allied airmen, said a dispatch from the front.

Premier Orlando is extremely confident of the outcome of the battle. "Our soldiers have been fighting constantly for five days but they are not yet tired out. The men shout 'they shall not pass' as they fight."

SOCIALISTS DECLARE AUSTRIA ON HER "LAST LEGS."

(International News Service.)
London, June 22.—Austrian socialist leaders who have just arrived at The Hague admit that Austria-Hungary is on her "last legs," said an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express today. They declare that what Russia and Serbia did not achieve is being achieved by Germany.

MORE SERIOUS RIOTS HAVE BROKEN OUT

(International News Service.)
Amsterdam, June 22.—New and more serious riots have broken out in Vienna and military forces have been called in to reinforce the police and establish order, said a dispatch today, quoting the Neue Freie Presse, a Vienna newspaper. Munition factories and bakeries were attacked by the mobs, it was said.

ITALIANS FIGHTING ON WESTERN FRONT

Amsterdam, June 22.—According to announcement by the German war office, Italians are fighting with the allies on the Marne front. The German war office announced the capture of Italian prisoners in this sector.

AMERICANS HAVE ADVANCED THEIR LINES

Washington, June 22.—The Americans have advanced their lines and improved their positions northwest of Chateau Thierry, Gen. Pershing reported today.

TWELVE THOUSAND AUSTRIANS ARE PRISONERS

(International News Service.)
Washington, June 22.—The total number of Austrian prisoners captured by the Italians has been increased to 12,000, said a news agency dispatch from Italian headquarters.

BRITISH CAPTURE PRISONERS IN PATROL FIGHTING

(International News Service.)
London, June 22.—British troops captured prisoners and inflicted heavy casualties upon the Germans in patrol fighting in the sector of Villers-Bretonneux, the war office announced.

COSTELUNGA IS CAPTURED BY ITALIANS

(International News Service.)
London, June 22.—The Italians have captured Costelunga, the Asiago plateau, driving back the Austrians, it was learned this afternoon from an authoritative source. The Austrians on the Piave front are reported to have crossed the railway south of Nervesa on a two-mile front. The railroad line in question runs southwestward from Vittorio through Treviso to Venice.

WE CAN, BUT WILL WE? THE PLAN IS TO GO TO CHURCH.

As the go-to-church campaign, is this call for public worship based on sound sense and real human needs. To open the question, the story of the husband and his neighbor may be cited. The husband tore his trousers. His neighbor consoled him by saying that the wife could mend them, to which the husband replied, "Yes, but WILL she?" We can and may worship in the open. We may profit by the sermons in stones, and get good out of everything. We may worship amid the charms of solitude. But will we? As the chief element of true worship is a keen sense of personal responsibility, the question is settled: Is under what circumstances do we develop the highest sense of responsibility? This question is soon answered in favor of the truths uttered by word of mouth as against the silent sermons of Nature. A man speaking the truth has more influence than the "sermons in stone." The flowery Jack-in-the-pulpit, however beautiful has language, does not have the weight that the message of a devoted pastor has.

The God of Nature is admired, but it is only the revealed God that is worshipped aright. Only the commandments of a God who is proclaimed by human lips are obeyed. The sun and fire worshippers among the ancients had little or no conception of true worship. Those far-off people could not hear because they had no human voice to speak to them. The will is the thing which first of all must be moved if worship is to follow. Grand sunsets and towering mountains do not move one to right business nearly so much as does the message of truth when told by a human being. It takes the will of one man to move the will of another man. Besides, man comes to his highest state when in intimate association with other men. If an inspiration comes to an isolated person, it is largely lost, because there is no one to share it with. There is an inspiration in the assembled congregation which can come in no other way. And the pitiless publicity into which one comes at church has a most salutary effect. A large company of worshippers are to evil thoughts what sunshine is to disease germs.

Of course there are drawbacks to public worship. The drawbacks are those who shed their religion like a garment as occasion may seem to them to demand. It is not pleasant to sit at worship with known, so-called hypocrites. But the good things

A THOUGHT FOR USE SUNDAY, AND EVERY OTHER DAY

BY OBSERVER.

We should see over the top, as well as go over the top. "My people perish for lack of vision." This scripture does not mean that we do not see enough—"such as it is." We see too many of the visions of "the lion without," and of our dead bodies in the road, slain by said lion to use another scripture reference. And we see too many of the "chained lions," that "Pilgrims" feared.

The scripture first quoted does mean that we perish for the lack of a vision of the "delectable mountains" that "Strongheart" saw; and that we die for the lack of the inspiration of the "glowing portals" of heaven, that Bret Harte said he saw. Now there are two ways America can lose this war. The first way—Gad save the mark—would be for the Huns to win it. The second, would be for us to win it and not be blessed thereby.

Of course we fall of the blessing if we see not the true significance of the war. If we win the war as a race war, we lose. God has "made of one blood all nations of men." Acts 17:26.

Anglo-Saxon and Teuton have a common origin. Suppose we win and wreak vengeance on the guilty Germans? Have we made a gain? No! Such a gain would be infinite loss.

"Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

If we gain the markets of the world and become the world's bankers, would all this repay the hurt of the war? No, indeed!

If the strenuous activities of the thought at church far outweigh the unpleasant things experienced there. It is doubtless quite possible that we may serve and worship acceptably and never go to church, but will we? It was a wise man, whoever he was, who penned the words, "Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together, as of the manner of some."

Now in war, with the greatest evil that has ever challenged right, America, as never before, should hear the call, Get together, and worship according to the dictates of your own consciences!

war shall have put America in possession of all of nature's secrets and thus make us lords of earth, air and sky, even to the imperial sun, the price of the war would have then been too high!

Should we gain the co-operation of all the decent nations, and establish a league of peace, would not such an achievement pay for the blood and treasure expended? No!

What then can make us real winners even at the loss of our young men and the blighting of our maidens' hopes.

One thing—yea, two things—duty nobly done is the first; and the second is, to gain the possession of His spirit of sacrifice and of suffering. But what will it gain you to know Christ's sacrifice and suffering? Just this, the realization of this promise: "If we suffer with Him, we shall also reign with Him." Is that not enough? It is. Suppose you should have to meet Him in some other world than this, what material difference does that make?

And also, as a nation, we can win such a promise. As a nation would it not be infinitely better to suffer and die with Him than to stay on in this world and be reigned over by despots? Of course people who have no vision cannot answer these last questions in the affirmative. Such must perish, that is all—if we accept the scripture quotation used in the beginning.

Finally, this war offers the highest kind of opportunity—as all crises do—for a boy to become a good man; God's noblest work—for men—to become better men—for girls to become real women—and for women to become better women. Listen to James Martineau the great preacher: "High hearts are never long without some call—some distant clarion of God, even in their dreams, and they are soon observed to break up the camps of ease, and go on long journeys of faithful service; who do the good only to see the better, and who see better only to achieve it; who are too meek for transport, too faithful for remorse; too busy for repose; whose prayer is action and whose action is ceaseless aspiration."

President Wilson Emphatically Indorses Go to Church Movement. Go to Church.

PRESIDENT WILSON emphatically indorses the GO TO CHURCH campaign in a letter he sent to the Massillon (O.) chamber of commerce. I need not tell you that your effort to quicken the church-going habit among our people meets with my warmest sympathy. It has always seemed to me that the habit of church-going somehow lay at the foundation of steadfast character and the maintenance of the standards of life

Prizes Awarded by Board of Commerce

Winners in Garden Contests Are Announced.

Committees have selected the winners in the two contests inaugurated by the Albany Board of Commerce, the reports of the committees being as follows:

The committee on inspection of boys' gardens beg leave to report as follows:

Among the nineteen names given us is found that some of the boys had started and gotten discouraged early in the season; others had moved to other neighborhoods.

We found eight gardens that had been carried through according to program and most of these were free of weeds, well cultivated and were unusually attractive; soil conditions and dry weather was a discouraging feature in some cases. The boys who carried out to successful conclusion their plans are entitled to congratulations. The value to the family of the product of these gardens is worth a great deal more than the prizes awarded. We awarded the first prize to Alfred Hodgson, 806 Grant street; second prize to William Stuckey, 925 Sherman street; third prize to Elton Johnson, 919 Wadsworth street; fourth prize to Lawson Davidson, 408 Gordon drive.

If the prize winners will call at the Board of Commerce rooms Tuesday morning they will be given their prizes.

(Signed)

COMMITTEE.

Prizes Awarded in Girls' Flower Garden Contest.

A committee of ladies appointed by the Board of Commerce has this week inspected the flower gardens which were planted and cultivated by fifteen Albany girls. They were greatly pleased with results shown and it proved to be difficult to choose the winners, as the gardens showed plainly much careful thought and energy expended in arrangement and care.

The committee wishes to commend each girl for the interest manifested and suggests that they continue their efforts as nothing adds more to the attractiveness of the home and the town in general than flowers. They wish to mention the fact that little Miss Bernice McClure has sold enough sweet peas from her garden to buy a Baby Bond, which proves that she is not only a lover of flowers but a patriot as well. The prizes awarded are as follows:

First prize, $10 in Thrift Stamps, Amylee Speake.

Second prize, $7.50 in Thrift Stamps, Earline and Elsie Johnson.

Third prize, $5.00 in Thrift Stamps will be divided equally between Bernice McClure and Reba Vandiver.

If the winners will call at the Board of Commerce rooms Monday afternoon they will be given their prizes.

CULLMAN SOLDIER IS SEVERELY WOUNDED IN BATTLE OF MARNE

BERT PRESSLEY ARRIVES FROM FRENCH HOSPITAL — JACK GRIGGS OF DECATUR IS RUN OVER BY TRUCK.

Cullman, Ala., June 22.—(Special)—Willis C. Kilgore of Joffa, this county, has been notified by telegram from Washington that his son, Jas. H. Kilgore, was severely wounded in the battle of the Marne in which the American marines took part on June 6.

Young Kilgore was a teacher before volunteering in January, 1917, having taught both in Cullman and Morgan counties. At the time he volunteered he was a student in Piedmont college at Demorest, Ga.

The last letter received from him by Mrs. Kilgore was written on Mothers' Day. In this letter he said he liked to be at the front better than he liked the rear. He said he had not had a furlough since enlisting, but that he might get one soon, although he was not sure that he ought to take it.

Bert Pressley, of Cullman, has arrived here from a French hospital at the front, where he stayed eight months on account of being wounded in an accident. Before going to France he was enlisted in the navy and also in the army, having been in the service of Uncle Sam's fighting machinery six and a half years before we got into the war with Germany. On being asked to describe the manner in which he was wounded, Mr. Pressley said he was detailed to a munitions transport, and while transferring shells to the front, the Germans were throwing shells at the truck train from their long range guns. The driver of the truck on which Pressley was stationed became excited when a big shell looked as if it would land on his truck. He swerved to one side of the road. Pressley and three companions, one

Tenders Services For 4-Minute W. S. S. Speeches

QUICK ACTION IS WHAT IS NECESSARY TO BRING QUICK RESULTS.

Four-minute men are greatly in demand for addresses at all public places during the coming week on the War Savings Stamp campaign. At theatres, shop gates and at schoolhouses in various beats it is especially necessary that speakers should address the people on Monday, Thursday and Wednesday of each week. Will you volunteer for this patriotic work? Phone W. R. Shelton, Albany 46, and have your name registered for this movement, so necessary to "Win the War." Atlee Hoff, of the Morgan County National Bank will be glad to furnish literature outlining and giving suggestions as to the best lines of argument.

The following communication from a patriotic citizen of the county, Edmund Thickstun, explains itself. Mr. Thickstun has given a son to the service of his country who is now at the front in Europe and he is ready and glad to do all he can to help "win the war."

Danville, Ala., June 21, 1918.
 Mr. W. R. Shelton,
 Albany, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

In response to your call for four-minute speakers, I am offering my services. I believe that Professor Tidwell will tell you that I can make a war speech. If you can use me let me know as soon as possible, and furnish transportation. I should like to be at our own meeting here at Neal. From here I can go wherever you may need me. Yours for victory,
 EDMUND THICKSTUN,
 Route 3, Danville, Ala.

It will be necessary to do some effective and forceful work during the coming week by 4-minute speakers.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG SUPER-STAR AT MASONIC

"Shirley Kaye," which will be shown at the Masonic theater today, is the second production made by Clara Kimball Young and her own company, following the adaptation of "Magda" from the famous drama of that name by Hermann Sudermann. It took no little courage for Miss Young to undertake the film creation of the title role in that play, for it has been made famous by such leading actresses as the immortal Duse, the "divine Sarah" Bernhardt, and that sterling performer, Mrs. Patrick Campbell. Critics and film fans who have seen the production, however, insist that Miss Young, in her own sphere, need bow to none; for she imbued the difficult role with a vitality and a sympathy that fascinated all who saw the picture.

In "Shirley Kaye" Miss Young here is one of a lighter touch, and shows her as the resourceful American girl who saves the family fortunes and wins herself a husband at the same time.
